WOMAN DENOUNCES MRS. JOHN PARRISH.

Defendant in Suit Over Imboden Estate Arraigned by Stranger in Courtroom.

PLAINTIFF RESTS HER CASE.

Witnesses Testify Regarding Character of Miss Lillie Belle Pierce, Who Claims a Widow's Dower.

At the close of vesterday's session of he suit brought by Lillie Belle Pierce to prove she was the common law wife of the late Colonel Luther E. Imboden, a fashlonably dressed woman pushed through the crowd to the side of Mrs. John G. Parrish and began to denounce her bit

Doctor Parrish led the woman away and teld her to leave the courtroom, which she Mrs. Parrish soid afterwards that she did not care to discuss the incident, a it had no connection with the suit or

Mrs. Parrish was formerly Miss Etelka imboden, and was made the legatee of her father's estate in his will,

Lillie Belle Pierce, who expected by her wn testimony to prove that she was the amen law wife of Colonel Imboden, was not allowed to take the witness stand. Her attorneys wrangled for an how trying to show that her testimony was admissible. Judge Fisher sustained the objection of the defense. Under a new statute, a person who is a party to a contract the other party to which is dead and where the first party is an executor or administrator, that party is an executor or administrator, that party is disqualified as a witness.

The attorneys for the plaintiff alleged that a stipulation was made, when Miss Pierce's deposition was taken, that it was to be admitted as evidence, After Miss Pierce was disqualified as a witness her attorneys dismissed other witnesses who had been called and rested their case.

Miss Beesie Brockman of No. 3420 Laclede avenue was the most important witness for the defense, yesterday. She testified that during the past three years she had relations with Mr. Imboden which were similar to those of Miss Pierce.

OUTHLINES DEFENSE OUTLINES DEFENSE.

Mr. Dalton, attorney for the defense, in a speech told the jury what the defense expected to prove.

"The defense is willing to admit that expected to prove.

"The defense is willing to admit that Imboden and Miss Pierce were acquainted, that he visited her at her home and that he took her out on several occasions." We will prove that the general reputation of Imboden among his friends and business associates was that of a single and unmarried man and that Imboden declared positively and absolutely that he was not married or had intentions of marrying. His habits at home and his regularity of attending meals at home we will also prove.

"We will show that when Imboden went to her home he hesitated before going in and that he gave a certain signal or knock before the door was opened and that he did not carry a latchkey.

"It is our intention to show that as late as 1909 Miss Pierce and Imboden had a discussion as to her marrying another man and that he said to her. I am yours so far, and no farther, and when the right man comes I want you to marry him, and that she said, I want to marry hom man."

The first witness called for the defense was Mrs. Fields of No. 2845 Botanical avenue. She testified of her acquaintance with Imboden and of her knowing him as a single man.

Frank Orth of No. 2811 Lucas avenue testified that he had known Imboden for seventeen years and that he was generally known as a single man.

Imboden told him on one occasion that he would not marry the best woman on earth, as he had been married and had raised a family.

Orth also talked with Imboden about his the testified talked with Imboden about his

In the report of the Sanitary Commis-In the report of the Sanitary Commission Incineration plants are recommended for refuse other than garbage, and it is Commissioner Whyte's opinion that since the citizens do their own hauling of refuse to the dumps they would do it more willingly if incineration plants were conveniently located.

Mr. Whyte said that he did not want to be understood as being opposed to ananother dumpboat, but that he is of the colinion that as the permit from the Sec-earth, as he had been married and had raised a family.

Orth also talked with Imboden about his trip to French Lick Springs. Imboden told him, he testified, that he had gone there with Miss Pierce and had not registered under his own name. He also testified that Imboden told him he had gone to French Lick Springs to have a good time.

KNOWN AS A SINGLE MAN.
Robert C. Greer, real estate agent, at
No. 719 Chestnut street, testified to Imboden's reputation and that he was known as a single man.

another dumpboat, but that he is of the opinion that, as the permit from the Secretary of War names the location of the present dumps, another permit would have to be asked for, which, he fears, would be refused and might lead to a discontinuance of the one now in force.

Commissioner Whyte includes in his statement to the Council the correspondence with the Secretary of War touching on the subject. There is a provision in the statutes forbidding the dumping of anything in rivers and lakes which the United States has supervision over, except by special permit, revokable at the pleasure of the Secretary of War.

This special permit particularly states that no material except that which will float is to be dumped in the river, and watchmen must inspect every load dumped on the boat to see that this clause is compiled with. Annie Russell, a negress, employed as a chambermaid at a hotel, identified a pic-ture of Imboden. She said that he had been to the hotel on several occasions. She identified Miss Pierce, who was in the courtroom, as the woman who ac-companied him.

Mary Grimes, an employe of the same hotel, identified the photograph of Imboden as that of the man who had come to the hotel with Miss Pierce, whom she also identified.

Leo Block, notary public, testified as to having prepared certain deeds, which Imboden signed and acknowledged before him. In the deeds was the word "unmarried," written in ink.

Barney Haley, Robert Phillips and A. C. Dent of Lawrence County, Arkansas, testified that Alfred Judkins, whose deposition was taken in Arkansas, had a bad reputation for veracity-and morality.

W. D. Howe testified to having seen Imboden with other women on various occasions. He knew Imboden as a single man. He had never seen Miss Pierce or heard her name mentioned.

W. E. Sullen, a baker, living near the Pierce home, testified that he had been invited to Miss Pierce's home by her. He always knew Miss Pierce as a single woman.

J. A. Lammers testified to having heard woman.

J. A. Lammers testified to having heard George Pierce say on one occasion: "I don't see why people should think Mr. Imboden should leave anything to my daughter, as he was only a friend of the familiar."

The next witness was Miss Bessle Brockmann of No. 3420 Laclede hvenue. She said that she met Imboden at his own home in February, 1900. She did not live in St. Louis at that time, and had gone with the young lady with whom she was visiting, to call on Miss Etelka Imboden. TOOK HER TO THEATERS.

She testified that after making the acquaintance of Mr. Imboden he took her on various occasions to theaters and cafes. On one occasion while she was dining at the Lindell Hotel with Imbodining at the Lindell Hotel with Imboden she started to put on her cloak. A waiter stepped forward and offered to help her, Mr Imboden stopped him, she says, and said, "I will assist my wife." He was only joking, Miss Brockmann said.
On another occasion, while visiting St.
Louis, she saw imboden with Miss Pierce on a street car. She was with a young lady friend. Imboden turned his head from them and would not recognize them, she said.
Miss Brockmann afterward asked Imboden why he failed to recognize them. He said:
"I had too much respect for you and den why he falled to recognize them. He said:

"I had too much respect for you and your friend to introduce you to that lady." The lady. Miss Brockmann testified, was Miss Pierce.

Many letters written by Imboden to Miss Brockmann was also identified by her as being in his handwriting. Two photographs she identified as the ones he had presented to her.

Mrs. Sutton of No. 4746 Leduc street, and formerly in the employ of Imboden, testified as to his habits and the time he spent at his home.

E. G. Schoonover, attorney for the Imboden estate in Arkansas, testified as to Imboden's reputation. He had known him as a single man. He wrote Imboden's last will.

Several witnesses testified to Imboden's will.

Several witnesses testified to Imboden's reputation and to having known him as a single man. John Scully, a watchman at the Lindell Hotel, told of the character of a hotel near his beat, which, it was alleged by other witnesses, Imboden and Miss Pierce had visited.

read at the morning session and before the plaintiff rested. The deposition reviews the acquaintance of Imboden and her daughter, and it is very lengthy. According to Mrs. Pierce's testimony, in the deposition, Imboden's marriage vow. was: "As a man of honor, I take you for my wife, to provide for and protect you." In the deposition of Mrs. Pierce, the placing of a wedding ring on her daugh-ter's hand by Imboden is testified to, as are other incidents previous to Imboden's death death.

The case will probably go to the jury to day. The defense has several more wit nesses to examine.

Health and Able to Do the Hardest Kind of Work Without Tiring. "I went all to pieces from overwork in the spring of 1901, and I could not walk across the floor, I was so weak; felt I could not live another month. I suffered from hemorrhages of the lungs, which no medicine had been able to stop. Finally Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey was prescribed for me by my doctors. It completely cured me and has kept me in perfect health ever since. I have gained 42 pounds in weight, have had o hemorrhages and am no longer nervous. I am strong enough to climb the mountains all day long to look after the men working on my tanbark and to keep track of my log-haulers. When I began taking your medicine I was in a most miserable condition. There can be no question but that I owe my complete recovery to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. My doctor. my minister and neighbors for miles around are acquainted with the great benefit that Duffy's has been to me. Several of my neighbors are now using Duffy's with splendid results."—S. E. WHITMIRE.

SUSTAINS OVERWORKED MEN AND WOMEN.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey overcomes general debility, exhaustion and weakness, from whatever cause. It is always prescribed by doctors for broken-down men, delicate women and sickly children. It is an absolutely pure, gentie and invigorating stimulant and tonic: builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces: it makes digestion perfect and enables one to get from food all the nourishment it contains. It is a promoter of health and longevity—makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cures coughs, colds, consumption, grip, bronchitis, catarrh, pleurisy, pneumonia and all diseases of the throat and lungs; nervousness, maiaria and all low fevers. More than 7,600 physicians prescribe it regularly and it is used exclusively in over 2,000 hospitals. Duffy's is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This in itself is a guarantee.

CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sare you get the Government as a medicine. This in itself is a guarantee.

CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey he sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations and mait whiskey substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure Mait Whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey is sold in senled bettles only; never in finsk or bulk. Look for the trademark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seni over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles.

opera stage was, and all her sauciness and that quality which made Paderewski call her "You little devil," when she sang in his opera, came out in "Babette." The book is the same old comic opera story which Harry B. Smith has been turning out ever since he became rich. But the score, by Victor Herbert, is bright and tuneful, with some capital songs for Mme. Scheff, who sings with a finish and skill that most comic opera managers consider superfluous in a woman of her other attractions. Catarrh
